NOTE: The part numbers and the components listed above are liable to change at any time without any notice whatsoever. The above is an Indicative list and covers the commonly used components at the time of writing of this proposal. In case a component becomes unavailable, after an order is received by FICE, FICE will find a suitable replacement and supply the same to the Institute.

4. Setting up the Intel® Intelligent Systems Lab

The Lab may be set up in 10, 15 or 20 seat configurations. Higher capacities may also be used based on your needs. Typically we recommend a ratio of 1:3, which translates to 1 seat for every 3 students who will simultaneously take up practical work in the IIS Lab.

5.1 Intel® Intelligent Systems Lab Service Package

With all options, FICE offers comprehensive support services that include program management, logistics management, and installation/commissioning support, train the trainer programs and ongoing technical support.

The components that are put together to make a functional laboratory come from a variety of sources – FICE works with these sources and ensures that everything works as it is supposed to. FICE has a back end system that places purchase orders, tracks deliveries, ensures quality control and testing and then gets it all over to the Institution premises for installation and commissioning.

Once the installation and commissioning are completed, FICE shall organize a comprehensive training program for institution faculty members AND students who will be working with the new laboratory. This program typically takes 4 days to complete and includes comprehensive hands-on practical experiential training. During the course of the training, faculty members get to understand the program materials and courseware. Starting the 2nd day, they work with FICE instructors to deliver the training to their own students and understand how the materials can be used in the local context to maximum advantage. At the end of the training program, subject to meeting evaluation criteria, every participant – student and faculty member alike – gets suitably certified by FICE and Intel.

FICE will continue to be involved with the technical operations of the laboratory for a period of 90 days from the date of completion of installation. During this period, FICE personnel shall be available online and on the telephone to help laboratory administrators with issues, if any.

The service package includes appropriate signage for the laboratory (1 external and 2 internal) as per approved formats.

Institution responsibilities

The partner Institution shall be responsible for providing the physical infrastructure for the laboratory, as required by FICE – this includes the physical space, furniture and fixtures, electrical wiring and points, air-conditioning etc. The partner Institution shall ensure that an atmosphere conducive to learning and teaching is maintained at their premises.

After the purchase order is issued, the travel cost of all technical and program management personnel from FICE (and/or FICE's technical partners) shall be borne by the Institution. The travel cost shall include travel, boarding and lodging costs. This travel may be taken up by FICE personnel, with approval from the Institution, for installation, commissioning, training and post installation technical support, as required.

The travel cost for the training program is included in the quoted price. In case the Institution prefers to provide comfortable lodging and boarding services to the trainers directly, they may avail a discount of Rs. 6,000 on the service cost.

Once the equipment is delivered on site, all liability related to the functioning, maintenance and upkeep of the equipment shall be transferred to the Institution.

The institution will make the following available at its premises for setting up the lab:

1. A room of appropriate size, clean, brightly lit, well ventilated with adequate seating (desks and chairs),
2. Personal computer systems or laptop computers equipped with Windows or Linux/Ubuntu and loaded with Arduino IDE available at <http://arduino.cc/en/main/software#toc5>. Quantity should be the same as the number of seats that the lab is designed for,
3. High speed Internet connectivity should be available to all workstations/computers in the lab.

The institution shall be responsible for procuring any and all components locally, if not listed in this document.

Intel software

Intel offers a variety of software tools to facilitate an even easier learning of the concepts. These tools are available at the Intel website (<http://software.intel.com/en-us/articles/intel-education-offerings>) and may be procured directly. Several full features solutions are available for free trial for limited periods of time.

5. Training programs that are packaged with the Intel® Intelligent Systems Lab

6.1 Initial set up and training program

As a part of the package, FICE will handover curricular materials (in a CD or pen drive) and deliver a train the trainer program followed by a student certification program, at a mutually convenient location. All participants in the training program who meet all training program requirements, pre-requisites and evaluations, will be certified by FICE and Intel.

The training format is:

- Day 1: First phase of the train the trainer program – helping trainers understand the curriculum and the basics of the platform.
- Day 2-4: Work with the college trainers to train students on the Intel® Intelligent Systems platform.

Step 1: Lab set up

Lab will be set up in the college by FICE, in active collaboration with the institution

Step 2: 4-day Training

Day 1: Faculty members only (TTT)
Day 2-4: Faculty members plus students (TTT plus student certification)

6.2 Subsequent training programs

Once the initial training is complete, and instructors are duly certified, the institution is free to deliver training to additional students using the materials provided by leveraging its own faculty resources and certification systems.

If however, the institution wishes to offer further student training that leads to certification by FICE and/or Intel using the lab that has been set up, FICE shall be happy to offer the same. Of particular interest is a program that can help final year students complete their Project Work. The following represents the typical flow of such a program.

Initial 3 day training program leading to student certification by FICE & Intel

Project work by student mentored by FICE and/or institute faculty members

Final project evaluation

Students will be charged fees and the fees shall be subject to a revenue sharing arrangement that follow any of the following routes.

	3-day training program	Certification	Project Work		Fees (INR)	Institute share
			Monitoring	Mentoring
Option 1	100% FICE	100% FICE	100% Institute	100% FICE	2500	25%
Option 2	100% FICE	100% FICE	100% Institute	50% FICE, 50% Institute	2500	30%
Option 3	100% FICE	100% FICE	100% Institute	100% Institute	2500	35%
Option 4	100% Institute	100% FICE	100% Institute	100% Institute	2500	80%

Note: Mentoring support from FICE will be offered over (a) live synchronous video (b) email and (c) online discussion group

Programs can be customized after a careful study of the audience and their needs.

1. If University is located outside of the United States, then any dispute arising out or in connection with this Agreement, including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the LCIA Rules (the "Rules"), which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into this clause. The number of arbitrators shall be three. The seat, or legal place, of arbitration shall be London. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.
2. If University is located within the United States, then the governing law of this Agreement shall be the substantive law of California. Jurisdiction shall be of the State of California (without giving effect to the choice of law principles thereof). Any action based on or arising out of this Agreement or the Services shall be brought and maintained exclusively in any state or federal court, in each case located in Santa Clara County.

The parties hereby expressly and irrevocably submits to the jurisdiction of the above-referenced courts for the purposes of any such action and expressly and irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any objection which it may have or hereafter may have to the laying of venue of any such action brought in any such court and any claim that any such action has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

8.6 Injunctive Relief. The parties acknowledge that any breach of the confidentiality provisions or the unauthorized use of a party's intellectual property may result in serious and irreparable injury to the aggrieved party for which damages may not adequately compensate the aggrieved party. The parties agree, therefore, that, in addition to any other remedy that the aggrieved party may have, it shall be entitled to seek equitable injunctive relief without being required to post a bond or other surety or to prove either actual damages or that damages would be an inadequate remedy.

8.7 Force Majeure. A party is not liable under any Agreement for non-performance (other than failure to pay) caused by events or conditions beyond that party's reasonable control, if the party makes reasonable efforts to perform.

8.8 Parties' Relationship. The parties agree that this Agreement is non-exclusive, and no party will be prevented from entering into similar arrangements with other third parties. The parties are independent contractors of each other in the performance of the obligations of this Agreement. Notwithstanding the identification of "Partner" in this Agreement, neither party will be considered the legal partner of the other party in any respect, and nothing in this Agreement or in the performance hereof will create or imply any joint venture, franchisee-franchisor relationship, or principal-agent relationship between the parties. No party will have any right, power or authority to create any obligation, express or implied, on behalf of the other party.

8.9 Binding Nature; Assignment. This Agreement shall be binding on the respective parties thereto and their respective permitted successors and assigns; provided, however, that University shall not assign, delegate, or otherwise transfer this Agreement or any of its rights or obligations to a third party without the prior written consent of AAI; any other attempted assignment shall be void.

8.10 Notices. Ordinary day-to-day operational communications may be conducted by email or telephone communications. Any other notice required by this Agreement shall be made in writing and given by (a) personal delivery, (b) prepaid, first class, certified mail, return receipt requested, (c) email (with a duplicate notice sent promptly by one of the other methods in this Section), or (d) courier service of recognized standing (with confirmation of receipt); in any case to the receiving party, "Attention: Legal" at its address set forth in the heading to this Agreement, or to a different address of which the addressee party has notified the other in accordance with this Section. Any notice given in conformance with this Section shall be effective upon actual delivery or refusal of delivery.

8.11 Headings. Section headings are included for convenience or reference only and are not intended to define or limit the scope of any provision of this Agreement and should not be used to construe or interpret this Agreement.

8.12 Survival; Interpretation; Severability. All provisions which are intended by their nature to survive, shall survive such performance, or the expiration or termination of this Agreement, including without limitation those relating to limitation of liability, and infringement indemnity. Each provision of this Agreement shall apply to the fullest extent of the law, whether in contract, statute, tort (such as negligence) or otherwise, notwithstanding the failure of the essential purpose of any remedy. If any provision of this Agreement shall for any reason be held illegal or unenforceable, such provision shall be deemed severable from the remaining provisions of this Agreement and shall in no way affect or impair the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this Agreement, unless such omission would frustrate the intent of the parties, in which case this Agreement may be reformed to give effect to the other provisions hereof.

8.13 Entire Agreement; Modification and Waiver. This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no other terms or conditions set forth in any other document provided by University shall be part of any this Agreement unless specifically accepted by AAI in writing. No modification of this Agreement will be binding unless in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each party. Any express waiver or failure to exercise promptly any right under this Agreement will not create a continuing waiver or any expectation of non-enforcement. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.
